

If you are interested in history then you might enjoy completing some of the activities below.

- Create a timeline of as many significant events as you can between 1900 and 2000. Put them in the correct order and add as much information about each event as you can.
- Research one event, place or person from the past and create an informative poster or booklet on your chosen subject.
- Create a picture of a period of time or a specific person from history.

We would also recommend accessing BBC bitesize resources too!
